Teaching in Milton Keynes

Milton Keynes is one of the fastest growing urban areas in the UK. Combining the best of both urban and rural living, it is altogether a fantastic place to live. Shopping malls, clubs, restaurants, a theatre district and superb leisure facilities in the area have all been built close to parks and lakes. Transport links and rail networks are excellent; Central London is less than 40 minutes away on the fast train and Luton airport is less than 30 minutes by car/bus.

Teaching in Milton Keynes offers you a great opportunity to develop your teaching career. There are over 100 Infant, Primary, Secondary and Special Needs Schools in Milton Keynes. The area is recognised as one of the leading Education Authorities in the country. Overall performance in Milton Keynes' schools is well above the national average. As the city continues to expand new schools are being built, bringing to Milton Keynes state of the art teaching and learning facilities.

TimePlan has spent the past 15 years building up excellent relationships with schools throughout the Education Authority. We currently have teachers (many of whom are Canadian) doing Day-to-Day Guaranteed Supply, Primary and Secondary teaching assignments in schools throughout the area.

TimePlan will be interviewing Primary/Junior and Junior/Intermediate teachers to fill September long-term vacancies in schools throughout Milton Keynes and the surrounding areas.

Here's what we're looking for from successful applicants:

- A recognized Primary/Junior or Junior/Intermediate teaching qualification
- Teaching experience in the classroom from within the past two years (this can include practicum placement experience)
- Two professional references from people who have seen you teach in the past 2 years
- The ability to secure your own right to work in the UK through the British High Commission
- Strong subject knowledge and the ability to elaborate on teaching experiences
- The flexibility to adapt and thrive in different situations
- Confident behaviour management skills
- And, most importantly, a genuine enthusiasm and passion for teaching

The TimePlan office covering Milton Keynes has an experienced team of warm and friendly Education Recruitment Consultants. They have a wealth of knowledge about local schools and the local area. Regular socials, training and individual support ensures that all of our Milton Keynes teachers feel part of the TimePlan team.

“From the initial interview through to securing a teaching post and finding a flat, TimePlan was available to give advice and answer questions – it’s real teachers helping real teachers.” Matt, Canadian Teacher

Choosing to live in Milton Keynes means that you can enjoy everything that an urban area like London has to offer without the enormous rental costs. What’s more, as an ever-expanding city, Milton Keynes has a vast number of properties up for rent, ranging from small one-bedroom flats to stunning penthouse apartments. Our co-ordinators will only be too pleased to discuss life in Milton Keynes with you.

About the Interviewers

Veronica Cooper

Veronica is currently the Head Teacher Consultant for TimePlan's HBB Office, with responsibility for the schools in the Local Authority of Milton Keynes.

Prior to taking up this appointment, Veronica was an Assistant Head Teacher in a challenging Secondary School where she had responsibility for two Alternative Schools and a team of 6 staff. A very experienced teacher at Secondary level, Veronica has also worked in the Primary sector at a Special Needs School where she was the Deputy Head and Acting Head Teacher for a number of years.

Veronica enjoys the variety that the role of Head Teacher Consultant brings. In this position she has the opportunity to interview prospective teachers and work closely with those newly appointed to positions, supporting them in school and providing them with Behaviour Management training.

Paul Hussey

Paul is currently the Head Teacher at Caroline Haslett Primary School in Milton Keynes, which he opened as a brand new school in 1992. The school's most recent OFSTED inspection (December 2009) rated the school as 'outstanding'.

Eleven of the school's fourteen teachers, all judged to be outstanding teachers overall, were appointed to the school by Paul as Newly Qualified Teachers straight from university.

Paul says that he enjoys identifying talent and potential in prospective teachers. He is proud that Milton Keynes provides all teachers with the support and encouragement they need to become successful practitioners. He is also an accredited School Improvement Partner, advising schools across the UK. He has worked alongside fellow Head Teachers as an adviser for over 20 years.
